Principal Points – Mrs. de Jesus

- Thank you to Fuego the Firebird. Your visit at lunch and the Fall parties was a highlight of the afternoon.
- Thank you to the FPO for purchasing the water bottle filling stations.
- Updates on field trips
  - Open for second semester, but we will have bus challenges.
  - Would like to get at minimum 6th grade pool party and Kindergarten Zoo trip
  - All others we would like to plan on campus events in lieu of off campus field trips
- Updates on occupancy limits for indoor/outdoor events
- Veterans Day Assembly on 11/9 (8:25-9:10 for intermediate; 9:15-10:00 for primary)
- Senator Sean Bowie visiting our campus

Parent Concerns

- Hand Washing vs Hand Sanitizer
  - Some teachers are only allowing hand sanitizer in class because of the amount of time hand washing takes.
    - All students have the option to wash their hands instead of using hand sanitizer
- Water bottle filling station filter
  - Only 1 station has a filter
    - The district opted to not have filters added due to the difficulty and danger of installing them.

Agenda and Meeting Minutes

Tuesday, November 2, 2021

6:00-7:30 PM

- Historically we have not given a separate holiday gift other than the monthly gift they receive for teacher/staff appreciation. We typically give a cash gift or gift card at the beginning of each semester. $50 for fulltime teachers and $25 for part-time.
- School Need/Want – Coffee Makers
  - Email Vote After Meeting
    - Coffee makers in the work/break rooms of the pods allowing teachers and staff to make coffee or tea without having to go to the staff lounge in the MPR.
    - We voted to buy two coffee makers so each pod could have access to one in their break/work room.
    - Total cost $164.59
